IMPORTANT—PLEASE NOTE: 1) Hispanic is no longer considered a race, but an ethnicity and must be reported separately. A member of any race may also report as Hispanic. "Other" is for multi-racial reports only and must be identified in the narrative report. 2) Totals for lines 1, 2, and 3 must match each other for each column. 3) List only unduplicated program participants—clients receiving continued services from previous fiscal year may be counted only once during the new contract year. 4) A narrative report must accompany this form. The narrative should include the definition of "Persons Served" (typically El Cajon residents) and should reflect all additional data collected as agreed in the contract such as Number of Families served, Number of Projects Completed, Number of Program Hours provided, Number of Bed Nights provided, or other Performance Outcome Measurements. For questions, please call Redevelopment & Housing Division at (619) 441-1786.
